THE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

The national campaign was rather slow in starting up but it seems at last to be in full swing. Both Taft and Bryan are swinging around the circle, invading the counties of friend and foe alike, and the partisan press are cheerfully optimistic. With their usual forebodingness the latter are ready to have their candidates elected and are now engaged in figuring out the pluralities in the various States.

The campaign, however, gives no promise of being as active as usual and perhaps one reason for this is the sensibly diminished campaign funds at the command of the managers. There won't be so much money for brass bands and handbills. But these methods are gradually going out of date. The personality of the candidates and of the notable characters will continue to attract the people but the mission of the small fry orators has about gone. The art of advertising is better understood by modern political managers. The newspapers and the circular are coming into more general use.

The recent raising of a Democratic hickory pole in Springfield township was a fleeting attempt at a renewal of ancient campaign methods, but it will find small repetition. Besides, this particular pole was something of a campaign joke. It sheltered the deification of the Guffey Democrats to hold onto the Democratic organization in Fayette county, which promises to become a valuable political asset next year. There will be a judge to elect and there is a hope in the breasts of the over-hungry Democrats that the campaign contributions will not be limited.

A feature of the national campaign is the personal magnetism of Eugene Debs, the Socialist candidate, who will probably draw considerable vote from railroad employes, not because they believe in Socialism, but because Debs was a fellow-railroader. As to Socialism, few of them know anything about it. In fact, few of the avowed Socialists know much about their own political propaganda.

There is still time for a warm campaign and the finish may be fast and furious enough to delight the hearts of the veteran politicians.

Boys will throw stones, but they are not essential to victory. Boys who deliberately break windows and roofs and who throw stones at passengers are less necessary to victory than the other. They are following the force of unpunished example. Let these offenses be punished and a large portion of the boys will heed the warning. We can sometimes rule the rising generation by love, but usually a little of the wisdom of Solomon is found desirable. Solomon, it will be recalled, had a large family.

The California bank case is being tried all over the country.

Colorado makes quite a stack of copies of its manufacturers' report in war defense. The Centennial State is a long way from the Connelville coke region.

Violent dogs are a public nuisance, and the owners of them are responsible in law for damages for any injuries they may inflict.

The suspiciously late repentant Colonel Henry Waterson declares that Cleveland could not have written that posthumous letter. A few years ago Major Henry thought he couldn't support Bryan, but his repentance shows that nothing is impossible in the sight of the Promised Land. The Cleveland letter breathes the spirit of Cleveland and the literary style is his, which was peculiarly his own. What Colonel Waterson probably meant to say was that the Cleveland letter could not have been written by anybody else.

Consolidation is formulating.

The borough authorities should provide a cage for the threatening fools who get wild and woefully drunk. Such a Federal House would be a saving to the borough as well as the inmates.

In spite of the fact that hundreds of children have been drowned in the terms some people will persist in keeping them uncovered and thus furnishing a swimming pit of juvenile destruction for their own and others' children.

The esteemed Uniontown Herald gives us an exhaustive discourse on what a real newspaper should be. It is a pleasure to know that the Courier has not been read in vain.

Taft and Bryan are scheduled to meet for a peaceful non-partisan talk on Deep Waterways. That's getting in pretty deep. Perhaps we can arrange to have Taft in Connelville the same day Bryan is here and make it a non-partisan enough evening meeting.

We need rain badly enough but the Northwest needs it even worse.

Francis M. East is a man in the middle of life's stormy sea. He is a man of high character and high ability and his high character and high ability are his best motives for his high character and high ability.

Westmoreland county is setting its face against election fraud. It is a noble effort and it is a noble effort.

We fear that our good friend John Lever Ketter is quite incorrigible. He has the ineffable it should serve to excuse us of nursing out Democracy. Democracy, John, is past nursing.

It is as dead as the mummies of ancient Egypt. The only live thing in politics today is Republicanism and it is the only live thing in politics today is Republicanism.

Civil business is slow this week. It will be more active next week.

The unemployed are rising in sand and mud. The government is so poor that it cannot pay the salaries of the people who are working for it. The government is so poor that it cannot pay the salaries of the people who are working for it.

John Lester the glorified is having a good time. He is a man of high character and high ability and his high character and high ability are his best motives for his high character and high ability.

News Forecast.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.—The coming week promises to be well filled with political events of importance and interest. During the early part of the week public attention will be centered on the State of New York, where the Republicans and Democrats will both hold their State conventions for the nomination of candidates for Governor and other officers. The multiplicity of Democratic possibilities for the Governorship and the bitter fight in the Republican ranks over the proposed renomination of Governor Hughes gives promise of lively goings on at Rochester and Saratoga Springs, where the conventions of the Democrats and Republicans, respectively, are to be held.

Maine will be in the limelight on Monday, when the State election will be held for Governor, Representatives in Congress and minor offices. This being a Presidential year and the effects of the campaign managers to make an impressive showing having been exerted in assigning speakers of national prominence to lead their add in the Pine Tree State, the returns will be scanned with interest. Arkansas also holds a State election on Monday, but as the contests were all settled in the Democratic primary held last spring, the voting is of a purely perfunctory character.

According to present plans, Judge Taft will remain in Cincinnati during the present week, though he is in receipt of numerous invitations to speak in various cities in Ohio, Indiana and neighboring States. Mr. Bryan is scheduled to speak on Monday at Baltimore, on Tuesday in Wilmington, on Wednesday in Rochester, on Thursday and Friday in New York City, on Saturday in Providence, returning to spend Sunday in New York. Of lesser moment in the field of politics will be the nominating State conventions in Montana and New Hampshire and the Democratic State convention in Connecticut. The Republicans of New England are to unite in holding a monster barbecue next Tuesday at Point of Pines, near Boston. The Governors of several States are to attend and speakers of national prominence will be heard in support of the national ticket.

Irish-American residents of New York and vicinity are preparing a monster welcome for John Redmond and Joseph Devlin, members of Parliament and leaders in Ireland's struggle for independence, when they arrive on the Oceanic next Wednesday. The Irish leaders will be heard at public meetings in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and other large cities.

The large conventions scheduled for the week include the gatherings of the National Retail Druggists' Association at Atlantic City, the American Association of Traveling Salesmen, Agents at Seattle, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen at Columbus, O., the National Industrial Traffic League at St. Louis, the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners at Salt Lake City, the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers, Gas Fitters, Steam Fitters and Steam Fitters' Helpers at Indianapolis and the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at Montreal.

NEWS OF A DAY IN SCOTSDALE.

Many People From Here Won Prizes at the County Fair.

CITY LEAGUE SEASON ENDS.

Negro Was Found Guilty of Trying to Enter the Bowser Home at Alverton, Where Noah Ross Was Killed.

SCOTSDALE, Sept. 12.—The Westmoreland County Fair, which closed at Youngwood yesterday was the best one by all odds ever held in this county, and the attendance here during the week was very large. Scotsdale people fared well in securing prizes for various things exhibited. In class 2, for one-half bushel of potatoes, Edward Workman received a second, for carrots a first, for parsnips a first, for display of red peppers a first, for sweet corn a second, for lima beans a first and for field peas a second. For a landscape on oil J. Ray Swartzwelder received a first, a first for animals in oil, and a first for portrait in crayon, brown or white. Arthur McFadyen received a second for open and ink drawing and the first for water color work. Margaret Wood, formerly of here and now of Youngwood, received a second for all white quilts and a second for stand covers. Mrs. A. J. Porter received a second for sunbonnets. Miss Anna Steiner a second for lunch cloth, and Miss Desa Porter a second for dollies and a first for Hinton lace handkerchiefs, while Miss Anna Steiner received a first for Swiss embroidery. Harriet Steiner received a first for a birthday pillow, and the best poultry show Andrew Hawthorne received a second on Wyandottes, white cocks and a first on a cockerel.

Hale Found Guilty. J. A. Hale, the Conneltsville negro, Constable T. J. Gillespie acting as prosecutor on a charge for felonious shooting and one for burglary, was found guilty yesterday at Greensburg. Hale was accused of being one of the two colored men who went one night to L. P. Bowser's at Alverton. Young Paul Bowser was awake and when the two got in the house he opened fire, killing one that was afterward identified as Noah Ross of Conneltsville. The Bowser boy was exonerated by the coroner's jury and was complimented for his bravery. Hale remained at large for over a year and was then captured by Constable Gillespie, who had been working on the case. Hale will be sent to Huntingdon or the pen.

City League Series Ends. The game between the Clerks and the Caskey & Crescent teams last evening completed the City League series, with the exception of playing off two ties. The C. & C. easily won by the score of 10 to 0. Stouffer gave the Clerks only a single safety. The one-half catch of a fly in deep right field by Bisher was the feature of the contest. The score:

	W	L	Pct.
Clerks	3	3	0.50
Caskey & Crescent	0	0	0.00
Batteries	C. & C., Stouffer and Doolley; Clerks, Todd and Kegan and Miller, Unipier, Hawthorne.

The standing of the teams is as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
Schulze's	5	7	.417
Firemen	7	7	.500
C. & C.	10	0	1.000
Clerks	3	3	.500

The Rev. H. E. Lewis, pastor of the Mt. Lebanon Methodist Episcopal church at Tanis, will preach tomorrow at Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal church at 10:30 in the morning and at Jacobs Creek M. E. church at 3:15 in the afternoon, and at Alverton M. E. church at 7:30 in the evening. All are invited to be present at these services.

Frank Ritchie Dead. Word has been received here of the sudden death of Frank Ritchie at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rose Blumer, 41 Thirtieth street, Pittsburg, on Thursday morning. The funeral will take place in Pittsburg. The deceased was the eldest son of Frank Ritchie of Scottdale, formerly of Owensdale, and had been employed in the Pittsburg mills for several years. He was aged 31 years and leaves a wife and two children.

Old Folks' Meeting. There has been a great deal of interest aroused in the old folks' meeting, which will be held at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday morning, and to which all the old people of the town and vicinity are particularly invited. Those who are unable or who do not care to walk will be brought and taken home in automobiles and for many of them this will be a unique means of going to church.

Is an Ancient Drum. John C. Brownfield and Homer Miller were at Monaca City playing in the old Craft Band during the Old Home Week there. They headed the Brownsville delegation in the parade Thursday. The bass drum they carried was secured by Colonel Craft in 1847. It having come down the line from a band that broke up in 1855, the big fellow probably having been in the war of 1812. The drum is a longer one than is used these days and in fact was cut down six inches at the ends when the Craft Band began carrying it. The instrument has a deep, resonant tone and tolls out like a church bell when struck. Its appearance is like those bass drums shown in the bands of the Revolutionary period, and is quite a curiosity.

Of a Personal Nature. Mrs. Charles A. Tait returned to her home in Uniontown yesterday after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Porter.

Metropolitan Track Meet. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—The cream of the amateur athletes of New York and vicinity are entered in the Metropolitan A. A. U. track and field championships, which are to be decided at Travers Island today. The participation of several of the ablest athletes to the meet. The results are awaited with interest because of the hearing they may have upon the National championships, which are to take place one week hence, also at Travers Island.

Colorado Republicans. DENVER, Colo., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Republicans of Colorado assembled in State Convention in this city today and were called to order in the Auditorium shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. In addition to the Presidential electors and a caucusing of Congressmen at large, the convention will name a full State ticket from Colorado down. There are few contests of importance and the gathering promises to be unusually harmonious.

BASE BALL

UNIONTOWN TAKES GAME IN LAST ROUND.

Only Tally With Clarkburg Game as Contest Was Nearing End. Brilliant Playing.

CLARKSBURG, Sept. 12.—Going until the ninth inning without a tally yesterday afternoon the Girls by a collection of hits managed to pull one man around the circuit and win the game by a score of 1 to 0. This gives each of the teams a victory and one tie game in the series.

Lower in Sweeney were the opposing pitchers, and it may be said that one ranked up beside the other. The hit column will show that each was holding the great artists down to close bluffs, but Sweeney had a shade of the argument, and added to his good pitching, it was his drive for a couple of sacks that won the game.

Both teams gave the pitchers the best of support, sensation d'etops and catches being made in each inning. In the ninth Sweeney, first at bat, hit safe in left field for two briefs. Gilliam beat out a hunt, leaving Sweeney on third. Randolph drove a line drive at McGilley, who pecked to home, but Sweeney has beat the throw. The score:

Miss Harriet Ross in "The Man of the Hour."

Messrs. William A. Brady and Joseph of the people of the entire country rep. Graham will present their greatest to the lights and wrongs of the New York and Chicago success. The granting of franchises by those to Man of the Hour, for the first time, will be a representation of the in this city on Tuesday, September 15, at the season of machine politics is most 15, at the season theatre. read the and true. It is a play for "The Man of the Hour" is the play of the season. There are two pretty by George Broadhurst that has settled the loose stories lately interwoven the press and public, the entire community and much heart interest, and finally, to talking it is an Americanization of the play, a most delightful one play pure and simple dealing with a comedy and production are all question now uppermost in the mind that could be asked for.

SPORTING NOTES.

The great pennant struggle in the American and National Leagues have put the kiss-cross on the American game, the soul kiss, the solemn dance, and every other old peace disturber. Standing in the damp black cellar with his Highlanders crowded around him, "Kid" Gleason exclaimed: "Nob! Nob! Penmanship in twenty-six million years!"

It is claimed that the attendance for the recent three-game series between the Cubs and the Giants at Chicago broke all records. More than 75,000 persons passed through the turnstiles.

Outfielder Brown of the Boston Nationals may become a Giant once more. Manager Kelly is not particular in his choice with throw's work and Manager McGraw is willing to give Brown another try.

Any direction you turn you head nowadays you will see a pennant race calculated to make you eyes nearly pop out of your sockets. The great struggle in the National and American Leagues need a comment. Here, here, Baltimore, Buffalo and Newark are exhibiting a brilliant display of fireworks in the Eastern League and while scanning the East don't overlook the New England League with Worcester and Lawrence in the leading roles, and the Connecticut League with Springfield and Hartford in a clutch to the finish.

Thinking in the Middle West, the American Association is found with Indianapolis, Louisville, Toledo and Columbus so close together that the A. A. fans are scarcely able to distinguish one from the other.

And in the Land of Cotton, when it comes to the Southern League you're up against a guessing stand for sure. It's a mighty fine fan who can pick the flag winner from among Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans and Montgomery.

Retrace your steps and take a peep at the Central League, with Evansville, Dayton and South Bend; the Three-L League, with Springfield, Decatur, Peoria and Dubuque, the Illinois & Missouri League, with Mazon and Hannibal fighting it out for first place, the Western League, with Omaha, Sioux City and Lincoln all in the running.

What's that? You're getting dizzy. Why, you have just started. The heart disease Irish is on from one end of the country to the other. Big and little fellows are all in it. Take the South Atlantic League, the Virginia League, the Wisconsin & Illinois League, the Western Association, the Texas League, the Pacific Coast League, the Northwest League—Geo. Well, one thing sure, 1908 will be remembered as a crazy baseball year with a bossy finish.

Los Angeles is to have continuous baseball next season. At present San Francisco is the only California city enjoying the game every day. Judge J. P. Connors, President of the Oklahoma Board of Agriculture, was once a member of the St. Louis Browns in their pennant winning days.
